

WETHERINGTON PLASTIC SURGERY CENTER

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please contact the Office Manager of our office located at 406 East Second Avenue, Rome, GA 30161, or by phone at (706) 235-5119.

Relationships are built on trust. One of the most important elements of trust is respect for an individual's privacy. We at Wetherington Plastic Surgery Center value our relationship with you and take your personal health information privacy seriously. This notice describes information about privacy practices followed by our employees, staff and other office personnel. Healthcare providers you consult with by telephone (when your regular provider from our office is not available) or who provide "call coverage" for your healthcare provider will also follow the practices described in this notice.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

This notice applies to the information and records we have about your health, health status, and the healthcare and services you receive at this office. We are required by law to give you this notice. It will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose health information about you and describes your rights and our obligations regarding the use and disclosure of that information.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

We must have your written, signed consent to use and disclose health information for the following purposes:

For treatment: We may use health information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose health information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, office staff or other personnel who are involved in taking care of you and your health. Different personnel in our office may share information about you and disclose information to people who do not work in our office in order to coordinate your care, such as phoning in prescriptions, scheduling lab work and ordering x-rays or other tests. Family members and other healthcare providers may be part of your medical care outside this office and may require information about you that we have.

For payment: We may use and disclose health information about you so that the treatments and services you receive at this office may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company or third party. For example, we may need to give your health plan information regarding a service you received here so your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the service. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to have in order to obtain prior approval, or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment and if so determine the benefits.

For Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose health information about you in order to run the office and make sure that you and our other patients receive quality care. We may use your health information to evaluate the performance of our staff caring for you. We may also use health information about all or many of our patients to help us decide what additional services we should offer, how we can become more efficient, or whether certain new treatments are effective.

Appointment Reminders: We may contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care at the office.

Treatment Alternative: We may tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Health-Related Products and Services: We may tell you about health-related products or services that may be of interest to you.

Please notify us if you do not wish to be contacted for appointment reminders, receive mailed information regarding upcoming procedures, or about treatment alternatives or health-related products and services. If you advise us in writing (at the address listed at the top of the Notice) that you do not wish to receive such communications, we will not disclose your information for these purposes. You may revoke your Consent at any time by giving us written notice. Your revocation will be effective when we receive it, but it will not apply to any uses and disclosures that occurred before that time.

If you do revoke your Consent, we will not be permitted to use or disclose information for purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations, and we may therefore choose to discontinue providing you with healthcare treatment and services.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS

We may use or disclose health information about you without your permission for the following purposes, subject to all application legal requirements and limitations:

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: We may use and disclose health information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person.

Required By Law: We will disclose health information about you when required by federal, state or local law.

Military, Veterans, National Security and Intelligence: If you are or were a member of the armed forces, or part of the national security or intelligence communities, we may be required by military command or other government authorities to release health information about you.

Worker's Compensation: We may release health information about you for worker's compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses.

Public Health Risk: We may release health information about you for public health reasons in order to prevent or control disease, injury or disability; or report births, deaths, suspected abuse or neglect, non-accidental physical injuries, reactions to medications or problems with products.

Health Oversight Activities: We may disclose health information to a health oversight agency for audits, investigations, inspections, or licensing purposes. These disclosures may be necessary for certain state and federal agencies to monitor the healthcare system, governmental programs, and compliance with civil rights law.

Lawsuits and Disputes: If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose health information about you in response to a court or administrative order. Subject to all applicable legal requirements, we may also disclose health information about you in response to a subpoena.

Law Enforcement: We may release health information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process, subject to all applicable legal requirements.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors: We may release health information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death.

Information Not Personally Identifiable: We may use or disclose health information about you in a way that does not personally identify you or reveal who you are.

Family and Friends: We may disclose health information about you to your family members or friends if we obtain your verbal agreement to do so or if we give you an opportunity to object to such a disclosure and you do not raise an objection. We may also disclose health information to your family or friends if we can infer from the circumstances, based on our professional judgment that you would not object. For example, we may assume you agree to our disclosure of your personal health information to your spouse, family member, and/or friend when you bring them into the exam room during treatment or while treatment is discussed.

In situations where you are not capable of giving consent (because you are not present or due to your incapacity or medical emergency), we may use our professional judgment, determine that a disclosure to your family member or friend is in your best interest. In that situation, we will disclose only health information relevant to the person's involvement in your care. We may also allow another person to act on your behalf to pick up, for example, prescriptions, medical supplies or x-rays.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

You have the following rights regarding health information we maintain about you:

Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and copy your health information, such as medical and billing records, that we use to make decisions about your care. You must submit a written request to the Office Manager in order to inspect and/or copy your health information. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other associated supplies. We may deny your request to inspect and/or copy in certain limited circumstances. If you are denied access to your health information, you may ask that the denial be reviewed. If law requires such a review, we will select a licensed healthcare professional to review your request and our denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request, and we will comply with the outcome of the review.

Right to Amend: If you believe health information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment as long as this office keeps the information. To request an amendment, complete and submit a Medical Record Amendment/Correction Form to Office Manager. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that: 1) we did not create, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment 2) is not part of the health information that we keep 3) you would not be permitted to inspect and copy 4) is accurate and complete.

Right to and Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures." This is a list of the disclosures we made of medical information about you for purposes other than treatment, payment and healthcare operations. To obtain this list, you must submit your request in writing to Office Manager. It must state a time period, which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper or electronically). We may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before costs are incurred.

Right to Request Restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the health information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the health information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for it, like a family member or friend. For example, you could ask that we not use or disclose information about a surgery that you had.

We are Not Required to Agree to Your Request: If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide emergency treatment. To request restrictions, you may complete and submit the Request for Restriction on Use/Disclosure of Medical Information to Office Manager.

Right to Request Confidential Communications: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by mail. To request confidential communications, you may complete and submit the Request to Restriction on Use/Disclosure of Medical Information and/or Confidential Communication to Office Manager. We will not ask you the reason for your request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

Right to a Copy of This Notice: You have the right to a copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. To obtain a copy, contact the Office Manager.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We reserve the right to change this notice, and to make the revised or changed notice effective for medical information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. We will post a summary of the notice in the office with its effective date in the lower left corner. You are entitled to a copy of the notice currently in effect.

COMPLAINTS

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with our office or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with our office, contact the Office Manager at (706) 235-5119.
